UCFirst Living Learning Community Standards and Expectations of Participation

- I will contribute to the living learning community and program by having a positive impact on those around me and getting involved in the community.
- I will not allow my guest(s), including family members, to violate the Housing and Residence Community Living Guide and the UCF Golden Rule. I understand that I will be held accountable for insuring that my guests are aware of and abide by all policies including this agreement.
- I will take responsibility for my behavior and will not tolerate residents who violate the community standards. I will report those residents who violate the community standards to Housing and Residence Life staff.
- I understand that some program events will require that I sign up in advance, and that signing up for an event shows my commitment to attend that event.
- In an effort to improve the program for current and future students, I understand that I will be expected to complete 3-4 online surveys throughout the year that will assess my satisfaction, learning and participation in the community.
- I understand that any academic, behavioral, conduct or housing issues may be shared with the necessary professional staff members of this program (MASS, Housing and Residence Life) in accordance with FERPA and with respect to student privacy and discretion.

I understand that failure to comply with any of the above community standards and all other policies and procedures set forth by the University of Central Florida and the UCF First program may result in student conduct referral or administrative removal from the UCF First Living Learning Community.

I understand that I have agreed to abide by these standards and that staff members have my signed Living Learning Community Agreement on file.
